

Blood Group Determination in College

Date: 05-02-2020

Venue: Zoology Department Corridor

No. of Students Participated: 100

Brief Report: Blood grouping programmed has been done in the department corridor along with the help of PG (MSc- Zoology) students. Nearly 100 member's students know their in blood groups. Blood grouping is very necessary at the time of Blood transfusion.

Visiting IRCS Blood Bank

Date: 04-02-2020

Venue: Zoology Department Corridor

No. of Students Participated: 50

Brief Report: Visited Indian Red Cross Blood bank near cancer hospital along with the students. Students know about how the blood is stored in Blood bank along using anti coagulants. They also know about blood component separators. Students participated in this programme very enthusiastic.

Attending Workshop on Non Communicable Diseases

Date: 13-02-2020

Venue: Zoology Department Corridor

No. of Students Participated:30

Brief Report: Attending Workshop on Non Communicable Diseases along with PG Students . at the SSBN Aided Degree College , Ananthapuramu. Students know about the Communicable diseases and non-Communicable diseases differences. They also know how the Non-Communicable diseases are going to affect the population. They also know about the seasonal disease.

